

Medication Reconciliation Workflow

Synthesized activity diagram shows the primary medication reconciliation flow displaying activities associated with medication reconciliation through a PHR.

Based on the synthesized goal model and the combined requirements from the lead users, a primary medication reconciliation flow was developed.

Central to the workflow are two main activities:

1. Reviewing and editing the list of medications
2. Sharing that list with members of the patient's circle of care.